Re: Survival Liquid Tyre Sealant

We have been dealing with Survival for 4 months now and have had great results and feedback on their product. Besides it being a fantastic product the after sale service is what is really impressive. Not only do they follow up with the client on his/her satisfaction but they seem to want to go the extra mile. Their service is prompt and efficient. This product is exactly what our market needed as nobody can afford to be stranded alongside the road with a puncture.

Kind Regards,
